

FCC:

Do not let NAB work to crush XM Radio's ability to broadcast in urban areas. If local broadcasters feel they cannot compete, then they should quit. To limit the ability of satellite radio to deliver the best content goes against everything our 'capitalist' system is supposed to stand for.

Tad Cleaves